THE NEW POWER IN POLITICS.

In 1875 the Texas settlers had some trouble about their lands. The wealthy cattle men, or "attle kings," loosed the cattle of the farmers of Lampassas, and in order to deem their property from these monopolists the farmers organized an Alliance. It was successful, and spread over the adjoining counties for the control of the c THE NEW POWER IN POLITICS Adliance, and the Farmers' Mutual Ben-Alliance, and the Farmers' Mutual Ben-tern the property of the property of the pro-pagalazion is thorough, and its import-ant. On Wedding Outfits. We propose to devote this little space to "special outfits," in view of the approach of the nuptial season. We have always had a good deal of this "special work" to do. We refer, of course, to the dress part of the affair, and we are as fully prepared this season as before. We have all the different kinds of goods used for such occasions, in Cloths, Crepes, Diagonals, Hair-lines, and the new materials for Full Dress Suits—the French "Nancy" Cloths and the English "Sponge Cloths." Gentlemen contemplating the "act" whether in a modest or elaborate manner, will find us better able to suit them than any other house. We get up a very handsome Cutaway Frock or Prince Albert Suit at very moderate cost. When a "Full Dress" Suit is wanted, we can save the purchaser at least $10 in the price, and give him a first-class article as fine and as stylish as any house in the land. We also have all the necessary "furnishings" to go with a wedding suit, in Shirts, Underwear and Neckwear.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

To the Members of the Methodist Church, Cloverport, Ky.

The conference year that is now drawing to a close, has been one of the pleasant years of my ministry, and I trust has not been without profit to both pastor and people. There is one feature that has been encouraging, we have had good attendance upon the Sunday services. The church has been repaid, et al. et cot of $303.25, every dollar of which has been paid. We have had the teamly-five additions to the church this year, but we have lost five by death and three by certificate, leaving a net gain of seven-teem.

certificate, leaving a net gain of seven-teen.

While the spiritual state of the church is not what it should be, still I think we are on rising ground.

The Sunday-school is a success. I don't mean that the members of the church all attend, but that the school has kept up in interest. Our superin-tendent has served us faithfully and ac-ceptably, and is the right man in the right place.

The place is the right man in the right place.

The leaders of the choir for the sweet music, thereby adding interest to the services. The leaders of the choir have been faithful and prompt, and the whole church is under obligations to them, but especially to our organess, who has not only been uniting in her efforts to practice the choir members, but has not missed a Sunday service this year.

My Board of Stewards have my thanks My Board of Stewards have my thanks for faithfulness and the business-like way in which they have kept the finan-cial interests of the church. Every dol-lar of my claim will be piel. The amount of money raised this year for missionary and other benevolences, will be in advance of what we paid last "But that shall not happen," said both together.

And with a grave air and measured steps the two men advanced toward a small group who were stearing the unsufference. "Genteemen," said one of the pair, speaking composelly in the midst of a general silence," we regret to announce that our principal and former friend, M.

Eczema from Childhood.

Eczema from Childhood.

When an infant my body broke out all over with an enython or rash, which became more aggravated as I grow older. From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of the disease. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs Ark., and was treated there by the best medical men, but was not benefited. After that, under the advice of a noted product of the control of the co
